

Sayyid Al-Hakeem opens Ramadan lecture season, stresses rights system is consistent with human nature

In the first lecture of the Ramadan season, 25/3/2023, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, spoke about the message of rights to Imam Zain Al-Abidin Ali bin Al-Hussein "PBUT", completing his research in previous years, stressing the importance of integrating right and duty, and stressing also that the system of rights is based on human dignity, correct belief, noble values, and straight behavior, noting that the system of rights is consistent with the human nature.

His Eminence Completed His Research in the Letter of Rights of Imam Zayn Al Abidin "PBUH", as to the Rights of your Hand, rightly referring to the effects of injustice and its testament. We stood at the seventeenth testament of injustice in the Holy Koran, which is the denial of God's verses, The qualities of those who deny God's verses include exaltation, transcendence, selfishness, transgression, exclusion of boundaries, as well as abandoning prayers, arrogance, flattery, bargaining with misfortune, delinquency, and great guilt, referring to the eighteenth testament of injustices which is deception, and we read the verses of the Holy Quran dealing with the deceiver, which turned out to be an injustice bearing their sins and those who were misled by him.
