

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Martyr Ezuldeen was inimitable, jihadi, and clear and deep-visioned

In the conference organized by the Iraqi Studies Center, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, recalled the life of the Happy Martyr Ezuldeen Saleem “May Allah have mercy on his soul”, He was inimitable, jihadi, and clear and deep-visioned. His Eminence recalled the stations shared in previous eras and his special relation with Shaheed Al-Mihrab “May Allah sanctify his soul”.

H.E. illustrated some of the martyr’s features, tentative and political realists, he was also characterized by optimism and hope in the darkest of times, and he was brave when it came to taking a stand and bearing many criticisms and defamation.

H.E. called to reconnect to the past without drowning in details and take lessons from past experiences to build the future, illustrating that the current political, security, and social stability we’re living in, was due to the sacrifices and the blood of martyrs.
